A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTORS

London is once again ablaze with an incredible array of festivals, exhibitions, and events spanning across the city. As autumn approaches, London transforms with the spirit of Halloween, weaving mystery and excitement into its streets and with winter comes, so does London's countdown to Christmas, painting the city in a festive hue of lights and joy. Embrace the diversity of experiences that London's seasons offer, from culture and art to festivities and sporting events.

This Autumn CLA will embark on an ambitious journey to etch our city's name in history with a world record-breaking attempt – playing the longest padel match. This endeavor not only will display physical and mental resilience but also places a spotlight on the city's economic revival and vitality. This momentous record-breaking endeavour will coincide with The Lord Mayor's Appeal's City Giving Day. All funds raised during the event will go to The Lord Mayor's Appeal's selected charities – National Numeracy, MQ Mental Health Research and The Duke of Edinburgh's Award.

The Central London Alliance continues in its dedication to making a positive impact on society, leveraging the power of sports and community engagement whilst promoting London as the best place to live, work, invest, study and visit.

Whether you're a connoisseur of cultural festivities, an enthusiast of outdoor concerts, or a seeker of thought-provoking exhibitions, London beckons you with open arms. Drench yourself in the kaleidoscope of street markets during your midday break, immerse yourself in evenings filled with laughter and entertainment, and let the weekends unveil their magic as you explore our city's treasured landmarks alongside family and friends.

But let's not forget the unsung heroes of the week – Mondays and Fridays. These days are brimming with possibilities, providing a chance to kickstart your week with vigor or to wind down in style. Extend your stay to savour the offerings of central London's esteemed hotels, and enjoy visits to iconic landmarks. This magazine serves as your trusted guide to navigate the marvels of our awe-inspiring city. We've curated the best, and our pages are adorned with exclusive offers that await your exploration.

“London's vibrant culture is a symphony of creativity that resonates with the world.”

So whether you're a Londoner, a dedicated worker contributing to the city's pulse, or a curious traveler seeking adventure, rest assured that London's vibrant spirit has something to enjoy for you.

LONDON EVENTS IN SEPTEMBER

Embrace the allure of September as we step into a new chapter of captivating experiences in the heart of London. As the leaves begin to turn and the air takes on a hint of crispness, the city comes alive with an array of exciting events and gatherings that promise to delight and inspire.

This segment is your guide to the most anticipated happenings throughout September, offering a tapestry of cultural celebrations, artistic exhibitions, and engaging activities. Join us for a month filled with unforgettable memories against the backdrop of London's unparalleled energy and creativity. Get ready to immerse yourself in all that September has to offer, as we invite you to be a part of the vibrant pulse of our city's heartbeat.

1st - 30th September

Celebrating the River Thames with arts events, active adventures, environmental initiatives, heritage and education programmes.

Totally Thames is an annual season of unique, diverse and accessible art and culture throughout the month of September with activities taking place on, beneath, and along the River Thames.

Launched in 2014, Totally Thames emerged from the idea to expand and replace the hugely successful two-day Thames Festival along the South Bank and Bankside that ran from 1997-2013. The month-long programme runs the 42-mile stretch of the Thames through working collaboratively with artists, local communities, river interest organisations and businesses. Know more about how you can participate at www.thamesfestivaltrust.org

Bartholomew Fair - Until 16 Sept - City of London

Bartholomew Fair, the City of London's grandest outdoor fair, will feature free events, live performances, and captivating spectacles. Empower Me

EMPOWER ME - 23rd September

In the heart of bustling central London emerges an event of unparalleled magnitude. A dance class open to all genders and abilities takes the spotlight, but it's not the sole act; empowerment reigns supreme.

The underlying belief in unleashing inner magic resonates fervently—a conviction that every individual merits a safe haven for unapologetic self-expression. This event exists exclusively for this purpose!

The mission? Depart with newfound vigor, tingling sensations and your power! Dance isn't the only thing on the menu. Candid exchanges with founder, Illana, moments of reflection, grounding, laughter, and profound inspiration are seamlessly woven in.

If you're thinking of attending, have no fear, you will be supported and loved from minute 1 and you'll most likely make friends that you'll keep in touch with forever. Book now: www.dance-box.co.uk/empower-me/

Longest Played Padel Match - 25 - 26 September - The Crescent

Mark your calendars for September 25th-26th at The Crescent, where history will be rewritten with a groundbreaking attempt at breaking the record for the longest padel tennis match.

This 39-hour event promises not only to set a new benchmark but to create a community-driven experience like no other. Spanning two days, this event is more than just a sporting spectacle – it's a hub of workshops, delectable food, refreshing drinks, and an array of engaging activities for all ages.

The heart of this event lies in its philanthropic endeavour, as all proceeds will be directed towards The Lord Mayor's three handpicked charities:

- MQ Mental Health Research
- National Numeracy: getting on with numbers
- The Duke of Edinburgh

Join us in this extraordinary event, not just as a witness to history, but as a catalyst for positive change, embracing unity, sport, and giving back to the community.

A series of FREE workshops will be taking place next to the court throughout the day for local businesses, residents and visitors to take part in. For more information, visit www.londonloveaffair.com.

LONDON EXHIBITIONS IN SEPTEMBER

Be swept away by an invigorating September filled with art and culture in London. With diverse exhibitions spanning the city, attendees can unearth fresh talent, delve into various artistic forms, and submerge in the tapestry of art, culture, and history. Brace yourself for a rendezvous with London's finest artistry!

Marina Abramović

23 September 2023 - 1 January 2024

Main Galleries | Burlington House

In September 2023 the Royal Academy of Arts will present a solo exhibition of the internationally acclaimed artist Marina Abramović Hon RA. The exhibition will be Abramović's first major survey in the UK, bringing together over 50 works spanning her entire career, including performance works within the galleries. It will explore how Abramović has reflected on the temporal nature of performance art by extending its impact through its traces: photographs, videos, objects, installations and re-performances of her works by young performers. This exhibition continues the Royal Academy's strand of programming that has showcased some of the most important living artists.

Gabrielle 'Coco' Chanel, Fashion Manifesto With the support of CHANEL - 16 September - 25 February 2024 - V&A

The first UK exhibition dedicated to the work of French couturière, Gabrielle 'Coco' Chanel, Gabrielle Chanel. Fashion Manifesto will chart the evolution of her iconic design style and the establishment of the House of CHANEL.

Rubens & Women - 27 September – 28 January 2024 - Dulwich Picture Gallery

Rubens & Women, a major exhibition of the Flemish artist Peter Paul Rubens (1577–1640), will unite a diverse range of paintings and drawings from throughout the artist's career. The exhibition will be the first to challenge the popular assumption that the artist painted only one type of woman, providing instead a more nuanced view of the varied and important place occupied by women, both real and imagined, in his world.

Sarah Lucas - 28 September – 14 January 2024 - Tate Britain

Career-spanning exhibition devoted to Sarah Lucas, an artist internationally celebrated for her bold and irreverent approach to British experiences of class, sex and gender. The show will cover the full scope of her work in sculpture, installation and photography, which deftly explores what makes us human and how objects are imbued with meaning.

The Credit Suisse Exhibition: Frans Hals - 30 September 2023 – 21 January 2024 - The National Gallery

This exhibition, the first major retrospective of Hals in more than thirty years, means a new generation can discover why he deserves his place as one of the greatest painters in Western art. Some fifty of Hals's finest works will be brought together, including the exceptional, first-ever loan of his most famous picture, 'The Laughing Cavalier' (1624), from the Wallace Collection.
